THE ESSENTIAL NEED

By: Glyza Jane C. Ningningan

When we talk about making schools better, we after mention books, technology, or learning materials. But sometimes, the most important improvements are the simplest ones like adding a comfort room to every classroom.

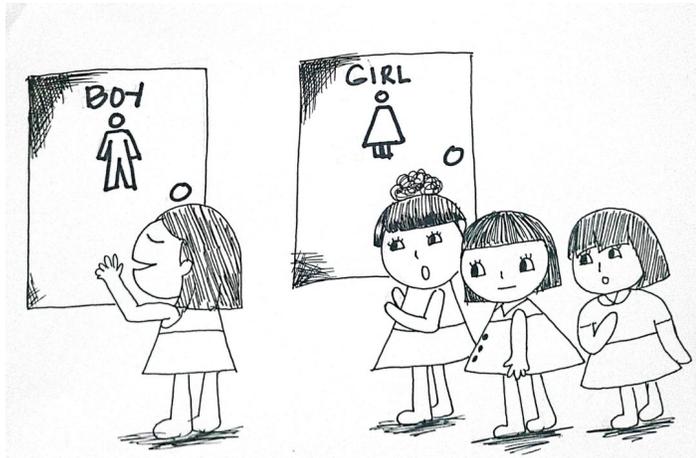

This isn't just about convenience. It's about care, safety, and dignity. Especially for our youngest students in preschool and grade 1. These little learners are still adjusting to school routines, and rushing to a far-off bathroom can be stressful and even risky accidents happen, and when they do, a child's confidence can be affected for a long time.

Having a comfort room in every classroom starting with those for kinder and grade 1 would solve many problems. It keeps students safe, reduces destructions during class, and helps teachers focuses more on teaching instead of escorting back and forth.

We understand that adding comfort rooms might require construction and budgeting, but this is a worthy investment. Schools are meant to be a second home and, in every home, access to a bathroom is basic. Our classroom should reflect that same core.

We owe it to our youngest students to make their school environment as supportive as possible. Let's start with the most basic need: a comfort room close to where they learn.

Household of Faith: ECALTI'S FAMILY DAY

By: Aniah Kiel F. Danasen

The role of the family is not limited to giving birth to offspring. A person without a family is an integral part of all of us. Family plays many important roles throughout the life as family is the single most important influence of child's life. It holds immense significance in our lives, serving as the cornerstone of our emotional and social well-being. It is within the family unit that individuals first experience love, support and a sense of belonging. The familial bonds forged early in life lay the foundation for one's personality and values.

To prove the worth of having a family, the Parents Teachers Association hosted the Family Day at Epiphany Christian Academy on March 29, with the theme: But as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord. -Joshua 24:15. The event featured worship songs like "Jesus, You're the Sweetest Name of All", "All that I have", "Bless the Lord", and Goodness of God".

This special gathering allowed students to spend quality time with their families. The morning began with students and parents watching their kids perform on stage, showcasing their singing and dancing talents.

Some teachers received special awards like "Fashionista Teacher" – Teacher Nichole Dawn K. Abeya, "Organized Classroom" – Teacher Raj T. Tanacio, "Strict but Loving Teacher" – Teacher Kimberly M. Moga, "Diligent Teacher" – Teacher Estella C. Bastino, "Vigilant Guardian"- Sir Kevin Rommel P. Kinao, "Almost Perfect Attendance"- Teacher Doris E. Diblo, "Tidiness Titan" Sir Mario W. Cabfilan, and "Diligent School Lider" – Sir Carlos B. La-us. The Grade 6 pupils then surprised their teachers with thoughtful gifts- roses and pouches- expressing appreciation for the role as a second family.

In the afternoon, parents, students and teachers came together on classroom for a joyful celebration of food, conversation, and play. The hallways resonated with laughter and chatter, creating unforgettable memories.

Family Day is meaningful event that foster happiness and love with families. It provides a valuable opportunity to strengthen family bonds and cherish relationships that truly matter. I hope this experience will leave a lasting impression on the students.

Ang Busilak na Puso ng Isang Bata

By: Xyla Charlotte Saja C. Bala-oy

Ang mga bata ang pinakadalisyang regalo sa mundong ito. Sa katotohanan sila ay mayroong kapangyarihang magbigay ng tunay na kagalakan at init sa puso ng isang tao. Ayon kay Roxana N. Jones, "Ang masaksihan ang kadalisyang puso ng isang bata ay ang pagsulyap sa langit."

Ang puso ng isang bata ay isang salamin o simbolo ng kadalisyang pag-ibig, pagpapatawad, at kagandahang loob. Sa isang paaralan, madalas masaksihan ng isang guro ang busilak na puso ng isang bata. Ang tinitibok ng pusong ito ay kagalakan na mayroong kakayahang magpinta ng ngiti sa mga labi ng kaniyang guro at pumawi ng pagod sa buong maghapon. Ang mga bata ay may kakayahang bumuo ng malalim na koneksiyon o pakikipag-kaibigan sa kanilang kapwa mag-aaral. Sa loob ng silid-aralan, may mga pagkakataon na hindi nagkakaunawaan ang mga bata at ito ay nauuwi sa iyakan, alitan, at tampuhan. Ngunit maya-maya ay makikita mo na silang naglalaro, nagtatawanan, at naghahabulan. Ganiyan ang puso ng isang bata, sila ay nagmamahal ng walang panghuhusga, walang kondisyon o pamantayan, at walang reserbasyon. Dalisay ang kanilang pag-ibig sa kanilang mga pamilya, kaibigan, guro, kamag-aral, at maging sa mga taong hindi nila kakilala. Sila ang ang halimbawa at repleksyon sa mga salitang nakasulat sa Efeso 4:32, "at maging mabait kayo sa isa't isa, mga mahabagin, nagpapatawad sa isa't isa, gaya ng pagpapatawad sa inyo ng Diyos kay Cristo." Ang kanilang busilak na puso ay isang mahalagang regalo, isang kayamanang dapat itangi at pahalagahan.

Ang puso ng isang bata ay napakasimple na may kakayahang hangaan ang pinakasimpleng bagay na maaari nating gawin, ipadama, o ibigay sa kanila. Ang kanilang kagalakan ay makikita sa mga simpleng bagay katulad ng isang laruan. Ang kanilang mga puso rin ay sensitibo sa mga nangyayare sa kanilang paligid. Sila rin ay nakakadama ng kalungkutan kung kaya't nangangailangan sila ng mga salitang magbibigay ng kaliwan sa kanilang mga puso. Ang simpleng pagsabi ng, "kaya mo 'yan," "ikaw ay malakas," "ikaw ay matalino," "ikaw ay matapang," ay napakalaking bagay na sa kanilang mga puso. Ang mga simpleng salitang ito ay maaring magbigay ng kagalakan at kalakasan sa kanila.

I came to a place full of strangers
Being cautious cause, it felt like danger
Badly wanting someone to come over
So I could hide behind and cover.

Thinking a year full of boomer
Not expecting something nicer
Realizing that this place is safer
And the beauty of things that I discover.

This journey is worth more than a story of love
Making friends that treat me better
Finding new home and family member
I promised to keep these memories forever.

We develop patience and stay cool.
We learn to make good use of the time,
That makes our future shine.
